ACCIDENT FIRST RESPONSE IN ACTION

YI FARISHTEY RAVNEET OBEROI SAVES LIVES IN NOIDA SECTOR 5

"Real Heroes Don't Wear Capes—They Wear Confidence & Carry a First Aid Kit"

When an accident struck Noida's Sector 5 on the night of 17th March 2025, chaos, confusion, and helplessness filled the air. Multiple people were injured, stranded in auto-rickshaws with no medical help in sight. A crowd gathered—but no one knew what to do. That's when Yi Farishtey Ravneet Oberoi, a Yi Noida Member and Certified Accident First Responder, stepped up. Armed with skills and calmness, Ravneet and his trained team did what truly mattered—they took action.

WHAT

- ❖ Emergency first aid was provided by Ravneet and his team to several severely injured accident victims.
- ❖ Ambulance was called and victims were stabilized during the critical golden hour.
- ❖ Prevented improper handling of patients by untrained bystanders.

HOW

- ❖ Yi Farishtey Accident First Responder Training empowered Ravneet to act swiftly and responsibly.
- ❖ Team of Yi Certified members coordinated efforts with ambulance services.
- ❖ Ensured calm, control, and effective medical support at the scene.

IMPACT

- ❖ Multiple lives saved during the golden hour.
- ❖ Awareness raised on the urgent need for First Aid training across India.
- ❖ Highlighted the critical gap in accident response preparedness among citizens.

PEOPLE & COLLABORATIONS

❖ Yi Noida | ❖ Yi Farishtey Certified Trainers | ❖ Local ambulance services

With more Certified Yi Farishtey, India can be a safer nation—one golden hour at a time.

Be the difference. Be a Yi Farishtey.

EMPOWERING MADUGULA HALWA MAKERS

"Reviving Heritage, One Halwa at a Time—A Rural Entrepreneurship Initiative by Yi Vizag"

At Young Indians Vizag, transformation isn't just a vision—it's a journey that begins at the grassroots. Through our Rural Initiatives and Entrepreneurship vertical, we aim to empower traditional artisans and create self-sufficient communities. One such impactful journey took us to Madugula, a culturally rich village 65 km from Vizag—home to the legendary Madugula Halwa.

WHAT

- ❖ Supported Madugula Halwa artisans in scaling their business while preserving heritage.
- ❖ Identified a dedicated cluster for halwa makers to promote sustained development.
- ❖ Created market linkages to open new opportunities.

IMPACT

- ❖ Traditional halwa makers now envision a scalable business model.
- ❖ Community awareness on digital selling platforms grew significantly.
- ❖ Strengthened the rural economy while preserving a local legacy.

PEOPLE & COLLABORATIONS

- ❖ Yi Vizag | ❖ Rural Initiatives & Entrepreneurship Vertical
- ❖ Chandu Sweets (Vizag) | ❖ MLA Sri Bandaru Satyanarayana Murthy
- ❖ Madugula Halwa Cluster

With every initiative, Yi Vizag reaffirms its commitment to building Bharat—one village, one entrepreneur, one legacy at a time.

Because Bharat truly rises when its villages rise.
